THE GRAND RALLY.
The City Full of Enthusiastic Republicans.
Several Thousand People in Attendance at the Circus Tent.
The Speakers and the Torch Light Procession this Evening.
The city is full of people to-day, nearly all of whom are republicans, drawn hither for the purpose of listening to the political speeches this afternoon, and taking part in the grand torch light procession this evening. There was considerable disappointment on arriving at the circus tent at the foot of Jackson street, to find that the committee had not made their wants known to Col. Robbins, consequently there were no seats left in the tent, and no platform for the speakers. A large crowd assembled under the canvas at two o'clock, estimated at three thousand, when Col. Robbins set some men at work and erected a platform in the ring for the speakers. The Bowler city band of Janesville, and the brass band from Clinton, furnished music for the enthusiastic republicans.
After the stand for the speakers had been completed, it was taken possession of by Dr. Henry Palmer of this city, who presided over the meeting. The speakers of the afternoon were all upon the platform, and were Governor J. M. Rusk, General Lucius Fairbaird, Congressman W. T. Price, of Black River Falls, Col. John C. Spooner, of Hudson, Secretary of State E. G. Timme, of Kenosha, Hon. L. B. Casswell, of Jefferson, and Ogden H. Fothergill, of this city.
Notwithstanding the fact that the immense crowd were compelled to stand, they seemed determined to stay and listen to the speeches, but many thought it would have been more convenient if the meeting had been arranged to take place in the park. The early hour at which the Gazette goes to press prevents us from giving a full and correct report of the afternoon meeting.
The evening special trains will bring thousands of men to join in the torch light parade, and our people are bound to make it a grand success.
The Janesville have several hundred extra uniforms, which they will give out to the republicans who will first call at the armory this evening. Members of the Blaine and Logan club of this city will find torches at the club room on Main street, and every able bodied republican in the city is earnestly requested to call, get a torch, and fall into line.

PERSONAL.
—Mr. J. H. Sonfield has returned home from a short absence in Chicago on business.
—Miss Clara Randall, of Clinton, is the guest of Miss Susan Hutchinson, Cornelia street second ward.
—Mrs. J. L. Fredendall and child, of Cheyenne, Montana territory, is in the city, the guest of her father-in-law, Mr. J. C. Fredendall and family, of the third ward. Mr. Fredendall will arrive in the city in about a week.
—We are under obligations to Conductor Eugene Rich for late copies of the Toronto (Ontario) Globe. Conductor Rich and wife are in Toronto, he being a delegate to the Railroad Conductor's Insurance association, now holding an annual meeting in that city.
—General Fairchild, of Madison; Colonel John C. Spooner, of Hudson, Congressman W. T. Price, of Black River Falls, were among the prominent callers at the Gazette office this morning. General Fairchild, Col. Spooner and Congressman Price address the republicans of Janesville this afternoon.
—John M. Whitehead, Esq., arrived home from Michigan last evening, and reports Michigan to be solid republican notwithstanding the reports that the fanatics would carry the state. Thursday morning a vote was taken on a Michigan excursion train to Chicago, which resulted in a vote of 90 for Blaine; 48 for Cleveland; 17 for St. John and 8 for Butler.
—W. G. Wheelock left for South Bond to-day, where he will be joined by his son Charles, and together they will go to New York and other eastern cities, where they will secure the country (it needs it) in search of novelties and specialties to stock their grocery stores for the fall and holiday trade. They both expect to return to their homes in season to vote for Blaine and Logan.
Under the Wheels.
Mr. John Wilkinson, of Mineral Point, a freeman on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, met with a very serious accident this morning near the round house of that company in this city, by which he will lose all of his right foot and perhaps his left. The particulars of the accident are as follows: A few minutes before the 8:45 freight train left this city for Mineral Point, Mr. Wilkinson went to the round house for the purpose of having a piece of timber removed from one of his eyes, intending to jump on his engine as it passed the round house. After having the timber removed he went back to the coal sheds of the company, and as the engine approached him he jumped, but missed his step and fell, the wheels of a stock car passing over both of his feet. His right foot was mangled in a terrible manner, and will have to be amputated near if not at the ankle, while the left foot was mangled through the instep and toes, most of which will have to be amputated. Mr. Wilkinson is a young man about 25 or 30 years of age and was firing on the engine for Mr. P. Waalen, and boarded while in this city with Mrs. Haynes, at the corner of High and Bluff streets, where he was taken and cared for by the company surgeon. Mr. Wilkinson also received a slight scalp wound but not of a serious nature.
The Weather.
At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 55 degrees above zero. Cloudy with south wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 75 degrees above zero. Clear with south wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 29 and 58 degrees above zero.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.
Meeting of the Rock County Sunday School Convention.
An Interesting Meeting at the Grove Church in Center.
Out on the prairie, eight miles west from Janesville and two east of Footville village, stands a neat little office, familiarly known as the Grove church, and there was where we were privileged to hold our annual meeting for this year. As we drove up to the steps in the darkness and misty rain, the open doors disclosed a scene of brightness and beauty within. Entering, we passed to the tastefully arranged branches of autumn leaves on the walls, placed there by the hands of one, who though she was present at the sessions of the convention, could only see, but was not able to listen. Bopons and pots of beautiful flowers, were added much to the attractiveness of the scene.
Rev. Harford Fowle, pastor of the church, led the devotional exercises, reading passages of scripture where God is mentioned as speaking to his people with audible voice to Adam and Eve, to little Samuel, and to Moses in the burning bush; dwell much on the meaning of the word devotion, and on God's presence with us. An hour was spent in prayer and praise, closing with a song by those faithful friends and members of our association, whom we love to call Father and Mother Cheney, "Gather the Sheaves."
President R. M. Benson not being present, J. F. Wright was chosen to fill his chair, and after a few pleasant remarks from him, Rev. D. B. Jackson entertained us for half an hour, speaking of the figurative language of the bible. Many figurative names are applied to God as Jehovah, Rock and Fortress; a shield; a strength to the poor; a refuge from the storm; a show from the heat, especially peculiar to the east when the heat is very great, and to the unaccustomed is almost certain death.
All through the bible are such names applied to Christ: A rod from the stem of Jesse, the vine, the good shepherd, the light of the world, the corner stone, the rose of Sharon, and many others. Solomon's song is full of metaphorical language applied to the church of God. Forgiveness of sin is likened to blotting out, a casting into the depths of the sea, and though your sins be as scarlet, they shall become as white as snow. Though all his metaphors were familiar, yet the grouping of them almost surprised us with their number and beauty.
Mr. Jackson was followed by Mr. Alex. Wiggins, a gentleman 35 years of age, who, sixty and seventy years ago, was a Sunday school superintendent. It was a rare pleasure to listen to the words of this aged christian, while the wind and rain were raging without. After singing the evening blessing was pronounced by Mr. Fowle.
Wednesday morning, the devotions were led by George Kellogg, who read the words, "Ask, and ye shall receive, etc.," also about the transfiguration of Christ. Mr. Wright spoke of the benefits of having the commandments and sermon on the mount learned by Sunday school pupils.
At the end of the hour Mr. Wright took the chair, and the work of the convention was begun.
The secretary's report of the last meeting was read and approved.
Father and Mother Cheney sang by request, the sweetest song dedicated to them, entitled, "Waiting at the Gate."
Committees were chosen, on nominations—Kellogg, Flint and Wells; on business—Jackson, Fowle and Prof. Smith, of Beloit college.
Encouraging reports were now read from several schools, the Beloit schools taking the lead; after which Mr. and Mrs. Cheney, and Mr. and Mrs. Fowle, sang a beautiful piece of music.
The questions to be answered were then gathered in. In reply to the question "How can we win a child to Christ?" Rev. J. R. Reitzel, of Milwaukee, said all very young children belong to Christ; their fathers are 90 per cent religious, and are very easily won. You must let the child see that you love the Savior yourself; they are not easily deceived, and if they see that you love Him, they can readily be reached. Prof. Smith and others took part in discussing this question. Session now closed with singing and benediction.
The kind ladies now opened their load of baskets, etc., and disclosed a very tempting array of everything that loving hearts could think of, to please the Sunday school delegates, who are always hungry. The coffee was steaming on the stove, and the roast pig was borne in, in state, and departed on a table by himself, where he attracted general attention by the week expression on his quiet countenance. After a grand dinner had been served to all, Father Cheney conducted the praise service, after which he and Mrs. Cheney sang again, by request, "Waiting at the Gate," also "Gathering Home, One by One," when they bade us good-by.
The following was now read by chairman of the committee on business. Your committee on programme and business, would report that a secretary for each town and city in this county be appointed to gather statistics from each school in the towns or cities, and report the same to the secretary of the county association, and would recommend that these reports be made before December 1st; also recommend the following persons:
Janesville—Mr. A. A. Griffing, Janesville.
Beloit—Mr. F. F. Gray, Beloit, box 493.

Porter—Mr. D. F. Sayre, Fulton.
Milton—Wm. Cory, Milton.
Lima—Wm. Saxe, Lima.
Harmony—Mr. J. T. Wright, Janesville.
Rock—Mr. J. T. Wright, Janesville.
La Prairie—Rev. D. B. Jackson, Emerald Grove.
Bradford—Rev. D. B. Jackson, Emerald Grove.
Newark—Mr. F. F. Gray, Beloit.

A FARMER'S CONVENTION.
A Large and Harmonious Gathering of Grangers at the Court House.
For the Purpose of Nominating a Candidate for the Assembly.
Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, a large number of farmers residing in the third assembly district of Rock county, assembled in the court house, in response to the following call, published in last week's Gazette.
Notice to Farmers.
Advertisement.
We, the farmers of the third assembly district of Rock county, in the incorporated district of Janesville, feel that our interests are represented by one of our members in the legislature. We hereby declare that a farmer's convention will be held on Tuesday, October 11, 1884, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the Court House, Janesville, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for member of the assembly.
We have every town in the district will be represented.
Called by order of a large number of farmers.
After waiting some time after the hour for some one of the inhabitants of the call to materialize and call the meeting to order, Mr. W. A. Mayhew, of Clinton, by request, called the convention to order, and after reading the call, Mr. W. H. Stark, of La Prairie, moved that Hon. A. M. Carter, of Johnston, be elected chairman, which was adopted.
On motion Mr. W. A. Mayhew, of Clinton, was elected secretary.
Chairman Carter requested that if any gentleman present was "posted" in regard to this more, he hoped he would rise and explain.
The convention waited for some minutes for some one to accept the invitation of the chairman, no one responding—the hall was broken in a sort of humorous way by Hon. W. H. Stark, who briefly and humorously gave his opinion of the "move." Mr. Stark stuck close to the point that some one was trying to create dissatisfaction in the republican ranks, and were making an effort to organize a democratic side show at the expense of the republican nominee for the assembly, Mr. J. C. Bartholf. He said he had heard it said that Mr. Scott, the democratic nominee, would support a farmer for the United States senate if the republicans should nominate such a man. Mr. Mayhew presented the following, as the action of the Blaine and Logan club of Clinton:
In response to the call for a farmers' convention, to be held in the city of Janesville, on the 11th inst., the republican voters of the town of Clinton, beg leave to respond by the following preamble and resolution:
Resolved, That we cordially endorse the nomination of J. C. Bartholf as candidate for the assembly by the Third assembly republican convention and recommend him to the suffrages of the voters of this district.
This brought out the true sentiment of the large convention, but one voice appeared in the convention and that was for Mr. Bartholf.
R. T. Pember, of Johnston, S. S. Northrop, of Clinton; Ezra Goodrich, of Milton, and W. H. Stark, of La Prairie, made brief speeches ridiculing the bolt, and giving their warmest support to Mr. Bartholf, claiming that there was no ground for other action on the part of the republican farmers of the district.
During Mr. Stark's remarks, Mr. J. H. Haviland, was signalled out as one of the persons having something to do with the publication of the call, and upon being called up for an explanation, said it seemed that he had been deserted by some others, and he appeared to be willing to forgive and be forgiven.
Mr. Scott, the democratic nominee, was also present and upon being called out stated that he had made no pledges, and did not desire to enter the discussion. He did not see the object of making a pledge to a convention that did not exist.
Mr. Mayhew spoke briefly in behalf of Mr. Bartholf, and paid a fitting tribute to Mr. Henry Tarrant, of La Prairie, who, through defeat in the convention, had rolled up his sleeves and was hard at work for the success of his opponent in the regular convention, and thought it a good course to pursue by other defeated candidates.
Mr. Smith stated that he had worked hard for the nomination of Mr. Tarrant, but was now willing to work hard for Mr. Tarrant for the success of Mr. Bartholf.
Mr. Smith's resolution was then adopted, after Mr. Mayhew had attached the following amendment, which seemed to be called for on account of the remarks of Mr. Haviland:
Resolved, That we do exonerate the farmers who were the movers in calling this convention.
Mr. Goodrich, of Milton, offered the following which after being discussed, was withdrawn as many, who were willing to vote for its adoption, thought it unwise to thus pledge themselves.
Resolved, That Henry Tarrant, who is a farmer and was a candidate as representative of this district, is entitled to our universal respect and confidence as a republican, in the course he has pursued, and we pledge him at any proper time and place our cordial support.
Mr. Aaron Broughton, of Mazonia, being present, made a statement relating to the agricultural farm, and thought it was
